A registered 501(c) (3) Non Profit organization. We operate solely for the public and community benefit.

A.A.Y. FOUNDATION, INC.

MISSION STATEMENT

A.A.Y. FOUNDATION, INC. is dedicated and devoted to helping participants find hope, regain or keep their dignity, self-respect, self-esteem, and self sufficiency. We encourage, motivate, and assist participants to seek job training for employment and specialized course curriculums to educate and elevate themselves.

A.A.Y. FOUNDATION, INC. takes pride in its continuous communication efforts with business owners, neighborhood church and political leaders, and community organizations to provide training to individuals as clerks, cashiers, flower designers, mechanic helpers, janitors, painters, gardeners and entry level office workers.

It is our desire to enable participating individuals to return to their communities as viable, positive and productive members of society and the community at large.

BYLAWS OF A.A.Y. FOUNDATION, INC.

Law 1

The name of this Non-Profit Corporation is A.A.Y. FOUNDATION, INC. The specific purpose of this organization is to specialize in Community Service as follows: Community Service

The community service programs for female and male participants will consist of the following:

- Graffiti search and removal
- Paint blending (Mixing of paint to match wall surface)
- Clean Sweep- Park/street maintenance (litter& trash pick up)
- Clerical Support- clients signing in, filling out paperwork
- Pantry Helpers- Food Program
- Food baggers and food line servers (for Senior Citizens)

During the course of their time in the community service programs they will be continuously counseled on the following:

- The value of the service not only to him/herself but to the community as it builds character.
 - Instill and teach basic discipline.
 - Encourage and impress upon them the value of positive self esteem.
 - Build the foundation for respecting themselves and others.
 - How to follow rules and regulations concerning being a productive law abiding citizen and to respect authority.
1. All community service participants are supervised and receive training in areas of responsibility, good decision-making and supervisory skills, in order that they may supervise undergraduate participants in the program.
 2. Drug and Alcohol Counseling
 3. DUI Programs.
 4. Domestic Violence Program.
 5. Food Distribution Program.
 6. Anger Management
 7. Family/Guardian Counseling.
 8. Youth Counseling
 9. Job Counseling.
 10. Employment Center.
 11. Housing/ Shelter information and vouchers for single women with children.

Law II

Necessary monies, clothing, and other goods will be donated and obtained from concerned businesses and individuals throughout the community. Additional possibilities will be granted from Philanthropic Foundations, which will also be solicited.

Law III

Problems in South Los Angeles are large in number and a substantial number of women with children are sleeping in cars, parks, under freeways and in abandoned houses. These places have no heating, no running water, no electricity which is unfit for human living.

All women and children living under such conditions are in danger of being raped and influenced by drugs. The only way an adult can make money is by selling cans and bottles everyday.

Law IV

A.A.Y. FOUNDATION, INC. will not discriminate. Any individuals seeking help and truly ready to change their life will be assisted. Food drives will be ongoing so that people can eat regularly and consistently. A.A.Y. FOUNDATION, INC. will solicit food from resources available to accommodate individuals even during the calendar year not specified for holidays.

Law V

A.A.Y. FOUNDATION, INC. will sponsor children and take them to major sports events. Our van (or transportation donated by various organizations and businesses) provides the transportation for such events.

Law VI

A.A.Y. FOUNDATION, INC. will help senior citizens living at or below the state poverty level. In addition, because some seniors have serious medical problems, no family or services they can use, we will provide or secure transportation to go the doctor or hospital for treatment when available.

Law VII

A.A.Y. FOUNDATION, INC. was created to save lives. Through our programs, actions and unconditional love and support we hope to keep as many people as possible from going to jail, from continuing to live negative and self destructive lifestyles. Many individuals still lead that life that prevent them from being productive, positive role models and citizens of society.

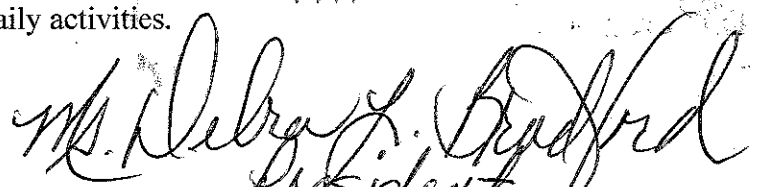

Law IX

A.A.Y. FOUNDATION, INC. Board of Director meet twice a month

Law X

A.A.Y. FOUNDATION, INC. maintains records of daily activities.
